이름이 두 개라서 헷갈리기도 하고,
인사하는 법이 달라서 헷갈리기도 해.
그래도 괜찮아. 둘 다 좋은걸.

Sometimes, it’s confusing.

Having two names and having two completely different ways of saying hello are confusing.
Yet, it’s just fine. I like both of them.

COLLEGIATE FASHION AND ACTIVISM: BLACK WOMEN'S STYLES ON THE COLLEGE CAMPUS

Description

This book was created by the group of Changde, the Gap Parents Book Club, happened in Asu, Iowa in 2020. We first developed the idea of the Korean parents' book club came by the research findings that parents are the main nutritional providers for immigrant children, but the first-generation parents of immigrant youth have difficulty accessing and understanding second-generation children’s experience in or out of U.S. schools due to language barriers and cultural differences. Particularly, Korean immigrant parents, those from one of the least diverse countries in the world, tend to have a shortage of authentic knowledge and experience of racial, cultural and linguistic diversity. In this book club, the Korean parents read children’s books about diversity and Korean Americans and went forward to create a story that Korean American children can make a good connection with. This book is full of the parents’ efforts to make connections to their children and full of the parents’ dreams to support all Asian American students to grow their true dreams no matter what obstacles they encounter.
